What is it?

- Acquisition of natural lands for long-term protection to ensure our communities sustain a foundation of healthy forests, rivers and biodiversity
- Success depends on the willingness of private landowners to divest a part of their land for conservation

Advantages

- Receive conservation severances for your clients while selling higher-valued residential lots
- Attract buyers who want to live surrounded by a protected and managed nature preserve
- Remove liability associated with owning and maintaining hazard land
- Sell property faster with smaller residential lots
